Friday: NGO program

Karibu Homes

Learn what it takes to build affordable, thriving communities for hard working families in Nairobi. View the purpose-built developments that are transforming low-income housing and providing a better quality of life for local residents.

Well Told Story

by TED Nairobi Speaker Rob Burnet

Harness the power of research, media and strategic communications to engage young people with ideas and networks to better their lives. Their magazine, Shujaa, an Emmy Award winning youth communications platform, influences social change through an evolving mix of media delivered across multiple-channels.

Ushahidi

by Senior TED Fellow, Juliana Rotich

See how technology is used to solve global issues by changing the way information flows. From monitoring human rights advocacy and violence in Syria to the US election, this sophisticated communication mapping tool purposefully collates, interprets and visualizes data in real-time.

iHub

by Senior TED Fellow, Erik Hersman

Discover the incubating hub for Nairobi's tech innovation community, bringing together entrepreneurs, hackers, designers and investment partners. Meet with experienced members and discuss how to collaboratively invent technology driven solutions for local challenges.

GrowthAfrica

Experience how this business accelerator supports and creates opportunities to scale successfully growing enterprises in and across Africa, and creates jobs to sustain the economy. You'll discuss how to take local entrepreneurs and emerging international companies to the next level.

Saturday: NGO program

Shining Hope for Communities (SHOFCO)

Explore how women’s education initiatives in the slums of Nairobi empower women to be key influencers in raising the quality of life for the next generation.

Filamu Juani

Filamu Juani tackles poverty creatively by providing opportunities for vulnerable youth to tell their stories and earn money while educating themselves for a better future. Join the young filmmakers of the Kibera slums as you produce, direct and shoot your own short docudrama, based on their real-life stories.

African Prisons Project

by Senior TED Fellow Alexander McLean

Tour Kamiti Maximum Security Prison for men in Naivasha, a model for effective prison reform and inmate rehabilitation initiatives. Enjoy lunch with prisoners and guards and learn about their interaction, education and legal council programs.

Bush dinner

The program will finish with a magical experience – dinner in the African bush and a chance to reflect on the program with the group.

International flights

We recommend waiting until your tour is 100% confirmed before booking any international flights.

Availability

The tour is only available to TEDGlobal 2017 conference registrants and a non-refundable deposit payment is required to secure your place. Please ensure your registration is complete before booking a tour. Places are limited on each tour so early booking is recommended.

Accommodations

Accommodation is subject to change dependent on availability. All rooms are double occupancy (either two twin beds or a double upon request). Single rooms are subject to availability and a surcharge.

Deposit

Full payment is due at the time of booking to secure your spot.

Cancellations

The entire program is 100% non-refundable. Operation of this program is contingent upon a minimum number of persons booking and travelling together. TED Conferences LLC reserves the right to cancel this tour should circumstances dictate, in which case, a full refund will be returned to you and we will do our best to accommodate you in a different tour of your interest.

Baggage

Soft bags are mandatory on light aircrafts as opposed to hard suitcases. There is a weight limit for each person boarding internal flights. Heavier baggage may be subject to an excess luggage fee. Remember to lock your bags prior to check-in.

Health

It is your own responsibility to be in the possession of all necessary health and immunization certificates that may be required. Check with your local health authorities to confirm requirements and obtain inoculations. Be sure to bring with you any personal prescriptions and medications. If you are taking any prescription medication, are diabetic or have any medical condition or allergies that require special care, please make this known in the relevant section of the booking form.

Passport/Visa

It is your own responsibility to be in the possession of a passport valid for six months beyond the duration of your trip. It is strongly advised that you obtain your visa in advance from both Tanzania Embassies and High Commissions, and an electronic visa from Kenya. Please check with your local authorities regarding requirements. There is no opportunity to obtain one once the tour commences.

Travel insurance

We strongly recommend you obtain cancellation insurance and general travel insurance, including but not limited to coverage of repatriation costs in case of any emergency. TED Conferences LLC and/or the tour operator do not cover your travel insurance. This should be purchased separately and can be purchased through your tour operator.
